

I do disagree with this petition. Amateur radio has always always been a special mode of communication. It is set apart from other by the requirement for proficiency in morse code. By removing the code requirement, and assigning voice hf priviledges below 27mhz, you remove all incentative to upgrade to general class license. There is a strong temptation for licensee with a no-code license to operating illegally outside their operator priviledges.